Lucifer is interesting. He's always above what you do. Here's a description of angels:

>Very advanced beings having higher knowledge, where the advancement trajectory involves truths. They perceive more, and partake in higher activities which is scaled by truth. They know more, and use this knowledge for hidden work. They serve God. They shape, and with a different worldview (a higher one) they elevate. Flight is achieved through successful thought patterns. The transition from one thought to the next represents an increase or decrease in height. Therefore fallen angels are evil and cannot fly.

>Angelic hierarchies are decided by the battles had with Lucifer.

E, please don't let them do this to you. God is more powerful than them. You always have a choice. I know you are capable of good and that good always comes at a cost of your honor, wealth, and even life. But in the end, the truth and goodness are worth more than all those things. God is sovereign enough to make the end times come about by some other person once you choose to fight back and He's powerful enough to protect you. The question is, are you willing to sacrifice everything for the sake of goodness?

Psalm 31:19 "Oh, how abundant is your goodness, which you have stored up for those who fear you and worked for those who take refuge in you, in the sight of the children of mankind!"

Nahum 1:7 "The Lord is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; he knows those who take refuge in him."

Romans 12:21 "Do not be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good."

1 Corinthians 15:33 Do not be deceived: “Bad company ruins good morals.”

Jeremiah 6:16 "Thus says the Lord: “Stand by the roads, and look, and ask for the ancient paths, where the good way is; and walk in it, and find rest for your souls. But they said, ‘We will not walk in it.’"

Jeremiah 17:5-7 Thus says the Lord: “Cursed is the man who trusts in man and makes flesh his strength, whose heart turns away from the Lord. He is like a shrub in the desert, and shall not see any good come. He shall dwell in the parched places of the wilderness, in an uninhabited salt land. “Blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord, whose trust is the Lord.

Proverbs 18:10 "The name of the Lord is a strong tower; the righteous man runs into it and is safe."

Psalm 91:1-2 He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say to the Lord, “My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.”

>I believe in Jesus.
Simple belief is not enough. Even the demons believe that God and Jesus exists.

James 2:19 "You believe that God is one; you do well. Even the demons believe—and shudder!"

Mark 3:11 And whenever the unclean spirits saw him, they fell down before him and cried out, “You are the Son of God.”

We might claim to know God but if you continue to practice wickedness until the time of your death then God tells us that we don't truly know Him and are therefore disqualified. That is why we must choose good with all of our might and repent of our sins when we commit them.

Matthew 7:21-23 “Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. On that day many will say to me, ‘Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name?’ And then will I declare to them, ‘I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness.’

1 John 2:3-4 And by this we know that we have come to know him, if we keep his commandments. Whoever says “I know him” but does not keep his commandments is a liar, and the truth is not in him,

Titus 1:16 They profess to know God, but they deny him by their works. They are detestable, disobedient, unfit for any good work.

1 John 1:6 If we say we have fellowship with him while we walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth.

1 John 5:2-3 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not burdensome.

Don't become part of prophecy. You're smarter and better than that.

1 Timothy 4:1 Now the Spirit expressly says that in later times some will depart from the faith by devoting themselves to deceitful spirits and teachings of demons,

No temptation is greater than what we can bear, there will always be a time we can escape. Take it! The longer we entertain sin, the harder it is to leave it. Flee as fast as Joseph did with Potipher's wife before the dopamine can kick in.

1 Corinthians 10:13 No temptation has overtaken you that is not common to man. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tempted beyond your ability, but with the temptation he will also provide the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it.

1 John 1:9 If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

James 1:13 Let no one say when he is tempted, “I am being tempted by God,” for God cannot be tempted with evil, and he himself tempts no one.

God gives us the strength to overcome our temptations.

Isaiah 40:29 He gives power to the faint, and to him who has no might he increases strength.

Psalm 18:2 The Lord is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer, my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold.

Philippians 4:13 I can do all things through him who strengthens me.

Ephesians 6:10-11 Finally, be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his might. Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the schemes of the devil.

>Orgies, sex cults, they control reality.
Yeah it really sucks. Satan was able to offer Christ in His temptations all the kingdoms of the world because he had them under his thumb. But Satan has been given only temporary dominion of just a small part of reality which is earth. To our small minds that seems like a lot because it's our only timeframe and world! Unfortunately, Satan is going to use that against you to try and demoralize you. Keep eternity in perspective, keep the vastness of the universe in perspective. Keep in mind the fact that Satan is a liar and will always lie to maintain his current power.

Revelation 12:7-12 Now war arose in heaven, Michael and his angels fighting against the dragon. And the dragon and his angels fought back, but he was defeated, and there was no longer any place for them in heaven. And the great dragon was thrown down, that ancient serpent, who is called the devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world—he was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him. And I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, “Now the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Christ have come, for the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them day and night before our God. And they have conquered him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, for they loved not their lives even unto death. Therefore, rejoice, O heavens and you who dwell in them! But woe to you, O earth and sea, for the devil has come down to you in great wrath, because he knows that his time is short!”

1 John 5:19 We know that we are from God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one.

Ephesians 6:12 For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers over this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places.

Lucifer is a title.

What do you mean by "real"?

I'm well studied in philosophy and theology so it's time to school you.

Lucifer is just a title meaning "light bringer" or "morning star".

Angel is just a title meaning "a messenger of god" and refers to any entity that brings fourth a message considered inspired, uplifting, divine, etc.

Hyperdimensional entities of all sorts exist obviously there's no need to use your stupid outdated biblical terms to describe them though as they in no way are limited to the bible narrative.

What you're dealing with is just your own thoughtforms haunting you, aka larvae as Franz Bardon would put it, and feeding back to you certain aspects of yourself you are or were trying to suppress and that need to be integrated again with your psyche or else disassociated from and cut off.

As for "Luciferian" this term was used by Albert Pike, Rudolf Steiner, Madame Blavatsky as a kind of gnostic symbol of "one who brings knowledge". Knowledge being referred to usually as "light". The obsession with light and its symbolism also really took off with Issac Newton and other scientists of his day studying optics and speculating on the scriptures and just being in general fascinated with light, kind of like how Tesla was fascinated with electricity later on and started thinking of everything in terms of electricity and its mechanics.

You saying "lucifer" and "they are real" doesn't say shit. Although I have given one interpretation here of what "Lucifer" is about, it also obviously just means "the boogie man" or "everything I don't like and that scares me" to ignorant people. You may as well just say in a babbling way "bad bads do baddy things and make world sad, waaahhh" that's how sophisticated your interpretation and understanding is. You're just scared of what you're ignorant of and have jew movie brainwashing shit in your mind. The actual Bible says very little about these things.

Remember that God is ultimately in control.

Colossians 1:17 And he is before all things, and in him all things hold together.

Hebrews 1:3 He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe by the word of his power. After making purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high Psalm 135:6 Whatever the Lord pleases, he does, in heaven and on earth, in the seas and all deeps.

James 4:7 Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

And that it all ends well.

Revelation 20:10 And the devil who had deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur where the beast and the false prophet were, and they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

Revelation 21:4 He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away."

Psalm 37:1-40 Of David. Fret not yourself because of evildoers; be not envious of wrongdoers! For they will soon fade like the grass and wither like the green herb. Trust in the Lord, and do good; dwell in the land and befriend faithfulness. Delight yourself in the Lord, and he will give you the desires of your heart. Commit your way to the Lord; trust in him, and he will act.

James 1:12 Blessed is the man who remains steadfast under trial, for when he has stood the test he will receive the crown of life, which God has promised to those who love him.

Btw Satan, in case you bring up that title as well, just means "an adversary". Historically the Hebrews were saying "Satan!" the same way we in English would say "Enemy!" or "Opponent!" or "Adversary". It is one who opposes, challenges, and tests and usually. The job of the "Satan" is to test you, the same way you'd be tested in the mystery schools of old, and see if you're actually worth being trusted with higher knowledge and power. They would tempt you, beguile you, etc. things like that and if you proved your virtues then you'd be noticed by the higher powers and allowed to do greater things. If however you fail then you'd progress no further and instead be left in ignorance, delusion, depravity, etc. The Satan is not evil, the Satan actually exposes the evil in others. Your enemy is actually your friend, put there by God to test you. Jesus, another title that means "savior" tells you to love your enemy. That means to love the Satan. The Satan won't do anything to harm you, the Satan is a servant of God just as any other servant of God.

All these names in the Bible are actually titles. They are applicable to all of us and can be seen as being about internal and external realities. The Bible is both an exoteric and esoteric doctrine. We struggle with passions, our own nature, etc. and hopefully become master over "the beast" aka the lower nature and impulses rather than letting "the beast" rule over us. This plays out within our own souls and is reflected syncrhonistically as well in our external world too.

The deceit however is in you if you don't see through it. There is nothing wrong with the Satans being in this world, you yourself are a Satan to someone, and especially in the sense that you may oppose The Truth (an aspect of God, so opposing God) by reason of this or that imperfection you have yet to overcome.

Your Ephesians quote is very proper in its translation there is literally nothing wrong with it. Other stuff in the Bible the meaning doesn't come through though to those reading English and not understanding the cultural context.

You conflating the title Lucifer with some kind of devil is just absolutely stupid on your part.

A Satan is an adversary.
A Lucifer is a light bringer aka a knowledge bestower.

>baby blood and other unnatural shit

First of all Nature is everything, there is no "unnatural" unless you mean by that "opposition to The Way". The Way was the title of all the original "Christians" went by btw, before later on they received that title of "Christian" aka "Anointed One". The Way is also known as The Dao and a bunch of other things but it's meant to indicate a way of being, living, etc. that leads to union with God (Yoga in other words).

As for baby blood what is that even going to do? Human sacrifice and everything related to that is just pathetic and unnecessary, it a long with many other voodoo practices are for very weak and low level people who haven't found much better ways of doing things. It's like eating a cow brain and risking getting a prion disease vs just taking a melatonin pill vs just learning a meditation technique to produce your own melatonin. There are multiple ways always to do the same thing and some ways are stupid, inefficient, and destructive. Then there's also just pure superstition and debauchery that doesn't lead to anything good, just time wasted.

All else is maya.

Go read The Kybalion.

The only thing you got right is relating truth to real/reality.

But what people perceive / "believe" is not the determination of reality at all.

That which is manifest is not reality.

For some reason idiots in the last hundred years perverted the meaning of words like "reality" into their exact opposites. They have confused and reversed the subjective and objective and also the real self with the false self.

Don't take part in that folly. What is true and real is not subject to change, not subject to consensus, and is not a projection.

> God can do anything since he is God.

Absolutely not the case and no serious theologian will ever claim this, this sort of argument has been dabbed on by both atheists and theists many times over.

God is bound by his own absolute nature and limited by his own characteristics. For instance omniscience puts a limit on omnipotence and vice versa and any other characteristics of god also limit him. God can not for example contradict himself. Every paradox is a polar manifestation of a singular deeper unity for example, the contradicting in a paradox is only seeming, it is not actual. Every paradox has a resolution (in both senses of that word "resolution").

Not him but the answer is free will. Free will is the ultimate form of love and the greatest gift God has given us because with that we can return his love and ascend into real happiness. People who pray and have a relationship with god are protected.

People who don't care and do whatever they want get handed over the world to do as they like. They or their ancestors decided a long time ago they don't need God.

Actually there's a website by a women who talks to God. You can search for a lot of the questions you have there in the upper right search box:

Here's a small portion:
So I asked God, "Now that Jesus has given us a shot at Heaven, I mean, phew! Talk about Thank You!! But what about the pre-Jesus folks? Where did they go when they died? Were they preordained to hit hell regardless? It seems kind of sad...or really scary. I'm glad I wasn't born back then."

God assured me that Jesus's sacrifice for the World and the opening of Heaven's doors was retroactive and pro-rated, so those folks back then had been sorted out, put in line like kids, and were just waiting for things to happen. God already had this all planned out - that Jesus would save our butts. Next question!

"Why didn't You just send Him earlier in time to avoid all the paperwork?"

God said, "It's all part of My Plan. It's a really large plan. I need to see how people will behave in certain situations. Free will, you see."

Also he did mention trump recently. He knows some people are worshipping him prior and had this to say:

Children of My Sacred Heart, pray and do not worship idols or persons. Even those who you think are good will betray you or fail. Do not worship the new President (of the U.S.). He is your reprieve, but he is not your God. Do not worship him or follow him blindly. I am the One True God, and it is only through Me that you are saved. He does not save you but provides only a reprieve to the decimation that comes.

Why do you not discipline yourself, meditate, and cultivate perfections? Why not tip the balance every day through the laws of rhythm, through the transformation of the circle into the spiral, creating positive feedback loops within and without instead of negative feedback loops? I think the answer is that most have not glimpsed what could be, and having not been so inspired as I have been, do not know their own shame. Knowing not their own shame they wallow in the mud content with what they have, often times even degenerating, when they could instead use their present incarnation as a huge opportunity for advancement forward through their path in eternity. I think it is quite simply this lack of vision, this ego that takes the horizon for the limit and sees not beyond that, that is to blame for so many "choosing darkness" as you put it. Perhaps also others react to "the light" with confusion, overwhelmed, not comprehending... but mostly I think it is just a matter of a lack of exposure. Whoever has seen what could be, what is promised them, will feel a restless in their soul every day and every night to elevate themselves into that pure light.

All manner of agents on all levels will help you as long as you have a desire in you to be helped. The cosmos is constantly responding to your every desire and intention. Ultimately you must get to the source though, don't treat the symptom. "Whoever has lusted with their eyes has already sinned" is the basic idea, if you restrain outward action but treat not the feeling/impulse then you won't win. Furthermore, fighting it directly doesn't work so well, it's good will power training and an exercise in the solar path but you need the lunar path too aka to go create other competing desires and let those desires grow and overtake the other ones. For example, if one finds themselves gooning to the worst depraved porn, instead think upon the most beautiful form and the most pure expressions of the body, and let that desire consume you instead. The yearning after higher things will allow you to overcome the yearning over the mere frivolities. Let yourself be a man of great romance, character, taste, etc. and you will elevate yourself over the more crass ways of being. You can then even transmute these lower impulses into still higher impulses until you are a swept away by the most refined virtues.

It doesn't matter how many babies they do or don't boil and munch on. When you lose two litres of blood, you die. All a "clown" has to do is cause enough blood to shed from you and yours, and whatever your efforts are go to waste as you find yourself held to account by God almighty.
None of it puts more blood in your body. Remember that.

Parasites are bad and have physical forms as well as ethereal forms. Their are parasites of the body and parasites of the mind and mind it should be remembered is not some isolated phenomena but can pick up impulses, thoughts, and feelings from all across the time and space.

Pineapple is a good parasite killer and also makes your gains faster. I recommend lots of pineapple juice and frozen pineapple blended together.

Well you learn the underlying mechanics of mind/nature/cosmos and can then become master over your self or maybe you'll choose to be a slave to avarice? You should choose perfection / self mastery... if you do go down the path of wrath you'll see how worthless are its fruits, how beneath the spirit it really is, how it is a thing for "little men", "the undeveloped". Read Karma Yoga by Swami Vivekananda and read what he has to say about duties and karma. The one thing that this study of the occult is going to guarantee is your evolution/involution. You're going to grow as a person, but it's up to you if said growth is painful or blissful. Either way of growing is valid.

>He's a deceiver yes, but so am I.

It's not good to practice falsehood about your true belief in Christ. It's a form of lying and cowardice and you are still accountable for sins committed under this guise.

Revelation 21:8 But as for the cowardly, the faithless, the detestable, as for murderers, the sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their portion will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death."

Revelation 22:15 Outside are the dogs and sorcerers and the sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood.

Remember that God tells us to let our light shine before others.

Luke 8:16 "No one after lighting a lamp covers it with a jar or puts it under a bed, but puts it on a stand, so that those who enter may see the light.

Matthew 5:14-16 "You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. Nor do people light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a stand, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.

And by example has taught us to be open about our beliefs and accept the persecution that follows.

John 18:20 Jesus answered him, "I have spoken openly to the world. I have always taught in synagogues and in the temple, where all Jews come together. I have said nothing in secret.

Matthew 10:27 What I tell you in the dark, say in the light, and what you hear whispered, proclaim on the housetops.

Mark 4:22 For nothing is hidden except to be made manifest; nor is anything secret except to come to light.

Luke 12:2-3 Nothing is covered up that will not be revealed, or hidden that will not be known. Therefore whatever you have said in the dark shall be heard in the light, and what you have whispered in private rooms shall be proclaimed on the housetops.

There are forces being played with that are not controllable even with god like wealth, technology and artificial intelligence.

No AI, time bubbles, wormholes, time loops, tachyon generators can catch God slipping.

Fauci told Trump they could safely unleash Covid and it would mutate and become harmless in the sun before it ever reached American shores.

It matters not if you believe in God or not. If you don't it makes you retarded not intelligent. And the pride and hubris of forcing God's hand will end very badly for most parties involved.

Unfortunately the supposedly inspired "scriptures" are ambiguous as fuck and get misinterpreted all the time so now we have stupid debates about the shape of the Earth. The Earth is not flat btw, it's a sphere. Gravity always pulls towards a central point and naturally creates spheres. Every heavenly body (stars, planets, moons) are all spheres and can be observed to be such. Any flat Earther garbage you come across just look up their exact argument but add "debunked" and you'll find the counter-argument refuting them.

No. What you resonate with changes all the time. A lot of times people overcompensate for something and go one extreme to another, then they find balance later on. It's just a matter of how noble you are. The more noble are your desires the more progressed spiritually you are. Stop desiring things unworthy of your underlying divinity, desires only that which is truly worth desiring, and you'll suffer productively and have a better time. In life you can sometimes choose your problems, some problems are better problems to have than others, so choose the best problems if you can. A great problem for example might be "nurturing my son" a bad problem might be "getting my next hit of fentanyl". Everything you suffer can be used as a way to become more perfect.

We are so fucked in the current time period it's hilarious, although if it's just survival you care about it's easy to be leagues ahead of all the subhumans currently alive.

Right now getting a good woman is quite possibly harder than winning the lottery and it's definitely easier to run 100 miles than it is to win the affections of a woman today.

Still, we live in a reality where telekinesis is real, so even though we have to be like Olympians... well we just have to do it. There is no choice about it. Do or die. That's how I see it. Seeing your enemies as evil is stupid.

Great nations do not fall to their enemies.

Every nation that has fallen to its enemies was destroyed from within first.

Your enemy is there to shine a light on your own soul, to tell you something about YOU.

The satan is a servant of god just the same.

If you want to think of the satan as evil then think of yourself as evil.

The man's greatest enemy is his own self (lower self, beast nature).

But the beast is not evil, it's just not tame. Tame it and it becomes a tool for good.

You need your body, your mind, your person to express the spirit.

Just answer unto the spirit and not onto the lower self.

Let mind rule body, not body the mind. Let spirit rule mind, not mind the spirit.

Forgive those who hurt you, they don't know what they do.

Fear mongering bullshit and you're being primitive as fuck.

Those in heaven are aware of those on Earth.

Those in hell are aware of those on Earth.

And those on Earth are in both places at once.

Everything overlaps. Planes. You need to understand this: http://www.kybalion.org/kybalion.php?chapter=VIII

How do you think it is, just going by the Bible, that there are instances of travel from these various planes? The demons are not locked up in some place called "hell" they are here with us. The angels aren't all in heaven.

The real heaven is a state of mind in which one has come to a state of perfection. The real heaven can not be entered by those who have not become perfect themselves, else they'd ruin it. The real heaven does not separate you from anything except the suffering of the lower planes. It represents an expansion of consciousness.

The real hell is not some place away from God, it's a state of consciousness and synchronicity where one only experiences the worst kinds of suffering and depravity. The ones in heaven can literally see the ones in hell, and speak to them, and they still just suffer. Unless someone very powerful comes and helps them. The worst most depraved beings of the lower astral are simply destroyed but not the divine spark, the divine spark is freed from the previous personality/identity and just takes on a whole new one, and begins its upward progress again towards unification. God can not destroy any portion of itself, that would make god less, and god can not become less.

>but not the divine spark, the divine spark is freed from the previous personality/identity and just takes on a whole new one, and begins its upward progress again towards unification. God can not destroy any portion of itself, that would make god less, and god can not become less.
Isaac Luria really did a number on you. For the simple Satan uses Mormonism and Islam, for the intelligent the lie must be greater and deeper, it must appeal to the intellect. Kabbalah, Kybalion, Freemasonry, all one and the same. Just more lies but for high IQ people who confuse complexity with truthfulness. Mix in a little truth with the lies to launder the lie through BS filters. It's heuristic hijacking.

That screenshot is extremely to the point. Much of the blah blah blah about "muh evil" is just about the fear of death. The Atheist like darkmatter2525 kvecthing all the time about babies dying of cancer looks really inconsequential if you just assume that no soul incarnated into the baby yet anyways or you assume there was a soul but now it's just released and will take another incarnation. The central figure of the new testament, the one called "Saviour", he proved himself to be a pneumatic (man of the spirit) in going to his death with perfect stoic resolve. Had Socrates not drank the hemlock, or Seneca taken the knife in his bathtub, they would have disgraced their philosophies. A man who goes boldly to his death proves himself to be a man of the spirit.

How is my explanation of the title, its meaning, and its application within the microcosm and macrocosm not very simple? It clears up a ton of nonsense and confusion. It makes the actual truth of what is. Do you want people to believe Satan is some boogieman scapegoat character who you blame for everything you or someone else does is evil to escape accountability? All because the word wasn't translated into English as it should have been so it looks like the name of someone to you? Anyone living back then at that time would have seen plainly it's a title not a name of a specific entity or individual just a title that can be applied to anyone who is, well, an enemy. Satan is just "enemy". If this wasn't a Christian thread I wouldn't even use that stupid term "Satan" I'd just say "adversary, enemy, opponent, erisian, troublemaker", etc. Satan isn't some boogieman you want him to be, Satan is just a title. It is "an enemy". Don't know what else to say to you without just going into loops.

Do you know why God created such a simple and open message of salvation? Because His sacrifice and His message was intended for the whole world to understand and accept, not just for some elite class of intellectuals, hidden in secret to only a select few. This understanding makes satan seethe because it undermines his psyops that are meant to ideologically capture incredibly smart people and the upper class of society. There have been various forms of these mystery religions psyops since Egypt. Sorry to get in the way of your beast grooming.

I have to ask because every fucktard on here has a different idea of the following labels:

>god
>angel >demon >lucifer
>satan

Without asking for clarity it could mean many different things depending on which type of fucktard we're dealing with and what his influences were (usually the stupid television shows but sometimes other stuff).

Lucifer means like 5 different things to 5 different people.

As for the Bible lucifer, it's just a title, and barely that title is used. All this holyweird crap where it gets conflated with "the devil" has poisoned the minds of Amerigolems especially.

There's a huge difference between say a man living in 1900 using Bible terms and his understanding of it vs the modern amerigolem poisoned by televisions shows and his understanding of it.

Human sacrifice and scapegoating is wrong. You're no different than a jew swinging a chicken around his head, except in this case it's a jew on a stick that serves as your one-time sacrifice, and luckily you don't have to repeat the sacrifice over and over (unless you believe in the eucharist in which case you're sacrificing him over and over).

Fact of the matter is he's not your substitute and your theology is wrong and cursed. He's your example. Salvation comes from the virtues, from following the way, aka doing the same as the apostles, the same as jesus, the same as moses, the same as the saints. You are not saved by a human sacrifice, retard.

Oh and regards to salvation which of the following two messages is more simple?

1. Practice the virtues. Become perfect like your father in heaven is perfect.
2. Accept that some guy died for you and now you can do whatever you want and keep sinning and blah blah because he paid the price of your sin but you're still subject to the fall / the consequences of sin just you're saved from the wrath of Yahweh that only comes at a time you can't confirm aka your death because a loving god would supposedly punish you at the time of your death sending you to hell forever.

Option 2 is convoluted and starts to fall apart immediately. Option 1 solves the effects of sin immediately, creates equanimity, stops suffering, creates the kingdom of heaven on Earth, etc.

I hate substitutionary atonement it is a false doctrine, a pharisaical legalistic bs, it is scapegoating.

Who? It's not a person it's a title you idiot. A title which was applied to another title aka "Jesus" at one point in the Bible. The light bringer (knowledge bestower) is the saviour. You are saved by gnosis / knowledge. Deal with it and go read Plato and see how he explains knowledge as the chief of the virtues.

Okay and? I have done that but the problem is when other people use a given term, the meaning of the term is not the original meaning, because people use the term in new ways. That's why I need to ask the fucktard to define it, to see if he means it like the original meaning, or in one of the various new ways of interpretation. It's very clear in this thread there's a lot of post-modernist fucktards with a hollyweird interpretation of the terms here, the kind of people who think for example Lucifer is a person, when actually it's a title.

Jews are not good role models just look at them they are slaves in the classical sense of being ruled over by the lower passions. They're also really ugly, and the body is a reflection of the soul, as within so without.

All you need to know in regards to prayer is that your every intention, feeling, and thought is heard and to clean up your thoughts. Go read what Tom Montalk says he does and just do that. You just have to clean up your vibe / your general thought patterns and maintain positive synchronicity. He's got some good videos about the different types of synchronicity on youtube.
